Mind Body Stability Ball Challenge!

Warm up

The warm up is build up as a repetitive sequence that evolves linearly. The warm up includes dynamic and atatic movements for increasing the body temperature and combines joint mobility and light stretches preparing to the main part of the workout.

Standing sequence

1. Stand straight, R leg steps on the ball – balance and perform knee extension / flexion, add spinal rotation.
2. Place the shin on the ball (second position plie' variation) – perform hip adduction, at the end of the set stay low, disconnect the heel and add a spinal rotation.
3. Take the leg off the ball and extend it back, both arms on the ball – draw 1/2 a circle with the leg from hip extension to abduction.
4. Go into a deep lunge – the arm on the same side as the back leg stays on the ball – perform a set of 8 reps' of one arm pushups.
5. Place the forearm on the ball and go into a plank.
6. Transfer the ball under the inner thigh same side.
7. Perform a spine rotation.
8. Bend the knee in the extended leg and place it of the mat. Disconnect the knee keeping 90 and a neutral spine (optional full disconnection of the leg off the floor.
9. Transfer the ball arms and shift the weight back for a modified pyramid stretch.

- Repeat the sequence to the other side

Sitting sequence

1. Sitting on the ball – practice PPT / APT and then stay in PPT. open one arm at a time to oblique crunch.
2. Role into a bridge position – perform a set of hip extensions and then stay for a balance / strength challenge disconnecting one foot at a time off the floor.
3. Lower into positive incline sitting – perform hip and knee flexion holding one leg off the floor supporting with the opposite arm on the floor. Combine hip & shoulder adduction.
4. Roll back lying on the back – perform a set of eccentric crunches.
5. Roll up to sitting position – slide into back support on the arms, perform a set of Triceps deeps.
6. Sit in a "Yoga warrior II" modification – perform a spine side flexion and at the end of the set hold balance by disconnecting the back leg (perform both sides).

Mat sequence

1. Sit on your knees both forearms on the ball – practice shoulder extension and then shift weight forward into a plank modification + lever length Layer.
2. Straight arms on the ball (modified "all 4") – disconnect one leg and balance.
3. Face forward, ball on your side and the forearm on the ball – perform hip abduction, add upper arm horizontal adduction (power and speed).
- Repeat the last exercise on the other side
4. Lay on your back both legs on the ball – perform hip extension then do the same feet on the ball and adding hams' curls.
5. Hold the ball between the legs – perform knee extensions and then go into the "side to side" exercise.
6. Both legs on the ball – perform a "Roll up" in to "Teaser" variation and continue into a back support.
- Relaxation and a slow transition to standing position.

Enjoy ☺
